Legend of the Map of the Indiantown Area in Northern Lancaster County.

1. Site of the Mentzer-Oberlin burying ground. It is about 200 feet from the highway at the end of a fence row. It cannot be seen from the road.
2. It is possible to park along the highway here.
3. Location of the Indiantown Mennonite Church (red brick)
4. Ranticoke Indian marker is standing by the road at the corner of the cemetery.
5. Old Eberly Graveyard is by the road about 100 yards from the crossroads at Burlach store.
6. Shirk's Crossroad - the Stevens and Schoenech roads.

Note: These are reduced size copies of two of a set of 77 maps which depict the whole Conestoga-Pequea watershed on a scale of 4 inches to a mile. They are based on aerial surveys made during the 1930s. They were published as Erosion Survey No. 15, "Erosion and Related Land Use Conditions in the Conestoga Area Pennsylvania" by Bonsteel and Bass, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Washington, D.C., 1940.
